

The June 20, 2017 meeting of the Mansfield Township Open Space Committee was called to order at 7:08 p.m. by chair James Watters. In attendance were James Watters, Glenn Todd, Matt Wielgus, Andy Parke, Carren Thomas, guest Roberta Kugelmeyer and Township Committee member Ron Hayes. Mayor Joseph Watters arrived at 7:35.

Minutes: Following the corrected spelling of the Hoff-Vannatta House, the minutes were approved in a motion by Glenn Todd and seconded by Andy Parke; all in favor.

Mt. Bethel Church: Andy reported a meeting that he, Mayor Watters and Dena Hrebenak had with architect Michael Margolis. Mr. Margolis will make a complete set of drawings for the entire project. The windows, doors and masonry (pointing the exterior) will be worked on before fall. Some window frames and glass need to be replaced but we already have wavy glass for replacement. Basically, work will begin in the front of the church and proceed toward the back. John Dorsch, local electrician, looked at the electric and will help. Jim McMekin looked at the furnace and will begin work after the electric work is done. One of the gutters failed. The contractor has been notified. A motion was made by Glenn Todd, seconded by Ron Hayes to ask Dennis Bertland and Michael Margolis to bid on a preservation plan for the church.

Karrsville School: Dennis Dillon has planted marigolds in front of the school.

Kensington Park: The tennis courts are in need of repair and will be replaced by basketball courts. Ron is looking into pricing now.

The Mill: All who attended the visitation of the mill agreed that it is an extraordinary place, that should be preserved. We appreciate the hospitality of Marylu Fitzpatrick and Tina Tang. Those guests in attendance on June 11, 2017 were Andy Parke, Matt and Kim Wielgus, Ruth Pante, Charles and Roberta Kugelmeyer, Dena Hrebenak and daughter Zoey Poyer, Ron and Kelly Hayes and Carren Thomas.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:01 p.m.

Respectfully submitted by Carren Thomas
