16. In the event that the initial deposit made by an applicant is not sufficient to cover all technical/legal review costs of the application, or, if during the consideration of an application it becomes evident that a review deposit which was previously waived will be necessary, upon request by the township the applicant shall make such initial or further deposit or deposits as may be necessary to cover further technical/legal review costs. Pending payment of the initial or additional deposit, all time periods in the application process for action contemplated by Section 19-7.6 of these ordinances shall be tolled and no further action shall be taken before the municipal agency. Notice of the deficiency shall be provided to the municipal officials by the Clerk of the municipal agency involved, and such municipal professional shall cease work on projects for the application which is the subject of a deficient escrow. The municipal agency shall pass a resolution adjourning the application of the applicant pending payment of the initial or additional deposit contemplated herein and provide to the applicant notice that failure to pay the prescribed escrow fees will result in the application being denied without prejudice. The resolution shall state with particularity the status of the applicant's escrow balance, the estimated amount of additional deposit necessary as well as an explanation thereof and shall provide the applicant with notice that the application will be dismissed without prejudice at the next regular meeting of the municipal agency unless the escrow payment as requested in full is made. In the event an application is dismissed without prejudice under the terms and conditions hereof, the applicant shall be required to file a new application with payment of full fees subject, however to paragraph 15 of this section. In no event shall an application be "approved" subject to future payment of escrow fees. The finance office of the municipality shall monthly certify to the Clerk of the municipal agency the status of the escrow account of each applicant. At the commencement of each meeting upon a particular application, the municipal agency shall determine if the initial deposit or if additional deposits had been or need to be made and shall take such action as may be required in this section. (Ord. 03-94)

NOTICE

NOTICE is hereby given that the foregoing Ordinance was introduced to pass on first reading at a regular meeting of the Committee of the Township of Mansfield held on November 13, 2013 and ordered published in accordance with the law. Said Ordinance will be considered for final reading and adoption at a regular meeting of the Township Committee to be held on December 11, 2013, at 7:30 PM, or as soon thereafter as the Township Committee may hear this Ordinance at the Municipal Building, 100 Port Murray Road, Port Murray, New Jersey, at which time all persons interested may appear for or against the passage of said Ordinance.
